

EMORY
UNIVERSITY

RACE & DIFFERENCE INITIATIVE
supporting research at the intersection of race and difference

NEW FRONTIERS IN RACE & DIFFERENCE
LECTURE SERIES

presents

Professor Barbara Ransby

“Are We There Yet?
Obama, ‘Postracialism’ and the Legacy of the Civil Rights Movement”

Thursday, Sept. 30th at 4 PM

Tull Auditorium, Gambrell Hall, Law School

Barbara Ransby, Professor of Gender and Women’s Studies, African American Studies, and History, & Director of the Gender & Women’s Studies Program at the University of Illinois Chicago, is author of the award winning Ella Baker and the Black Freedom Movement

Co-Sponsored by the Institute of Liberal Arts, the Department of African American Studies and the Department of Women’s Studies